Do You Want to Know What You Swallow?

There is a growing sentiment in this country in favor of MEDICINES OF KNOWN COMPOSITION. It is but natural that one should have some interest in the composition of that which he or she is expected to swallow, whether it be food, drink or medicine.

Recognizing this growing disposition on the part of the public, and satisfied that the fullest publicity can only add to the well-earned reputation of his medicines, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., has "taken time by the forelock," as it were, and is publishing broadcast a list of all the ingredients entering into his leading medicines, the "Golden Medical Discovery" the popular liver invigorator, stomach tonic, blood purifier and heart regulator; also of his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, over-worked, broken-down, nervous and invalid women.

This bold and out-spoken movement on the part of Dr. Pierce, has, by showing exactly what his well-known medicines are composed of, completely disarmed all harping critics who have heretofore unjustly attacked them. A little pamphlet has been compiled, from the standard medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, showing the strongest endorsements by leading medical writers of the several ingredients which enter into Dr. Pierce's medicines. A copy of this little book is mailed free to any one desiring to learn more concerning the valuable, native, medicinal plants which enter into the composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules. They regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels. Do not beget the "pill habit," but cure constipation. One or two each day for a laxative and regulator, three or four for an active cathartic. Once tried always in favor.

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY, in copies of Medical Adviser, a book that sold to the extent of 500,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. Last year we gave away $30,000 worth of these invaluable books. This year we shall give away $50,000 worth of them. Will you share in this benefit? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only for book in stiff paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Woman Murdered.

Mrs. E. H. Pavitt, wife of a farmer, was yesterday beaten to death at her home in Marple township, near Media, Pa., with a hatchet in the hands of an unknown assailant during the absence of her husband. Her body, with the head horribly crushed, was found on the kitchen floor by her husband upon his return from Chester, where he had gone to dispose of a load of farm products.

When the husband reached his home after an absence of three hours he found all the windows closed and the front door locked. Entering through the kitchen door he came upon the body of Mrs. Pavitt stretched full length upon the floor in a pool of blood. A hatchet belonging to the farmer was lying near the body The blade and handle were covered with blood and the walls of the room were spattered. The woman's teeth had been knocked out, her arms were lacerated, and her skull was crushed to an extent that showed her assailant must have wielded the hatchet with fearful force.

A trail of blood leading to the front window was evidence that the murderer had left the house through the window and pulled the sash down after him.

Pavitt notified his nearest neighbors of the crime. In a short time a posse of farmers was organized, and a few hours later Wm. Kelson, colored, aged nineteen years, was taken into custody on suspicion. He denies all knowledge of the crime. A negro answering Kelson's description was seen loitering near the Pavitt farm about 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

Hunting for a Fiend.

Somewhere in the wilderness of Fayette county W. Va., back of the Great Berwin White Pines, Nuttal Dhecheki, a Slav miner, is hiding from a posse of enraged men, who seek his life for one of the most dastardly crimes in the history of that county. Dhecheki is charged with literally beating his eleven-year-old stepdaughter to death, after having criminally assaulted her.

The deed was not discovered until late Wednesday evening, when a man named Carson, of Parkersburg, happened to go to the cabin of the Slav and found the child gasping away her life on the rough cabin floor. He immediately gave the alarm, and a physician was dispatched to the scene while a posse was organized for pursuit. The child lived but a few hours, just long enough to gasp out the story of her wrongs before she breathed her last.

Men armed to the teeth have been out since Wednesday night searching for Dhecheki, and if he is found a lynching will doubtless result. An effort is being made to arrest the man before the would be lynchers capture and wreak their vengeance upon him.

The victim of the assault had been taking care of his home for him and doing the cooking since the death of her mother a few months ago. She was the daughter of Samuel Swenson, a Swedish miner, who was killed by a fall of slate in a coal mine about two years ago, when her mother married Dhecheki.

Modest Trousseaux.

A dispatch from Berlin says that Frau Krupp, widow of the great gunmaker of Essen, and her daughters, Bertha and Barbara, have just been to Berlin, the object of their visit being to buy the trousseaux of the two girls. Notwithstanding their immense wealth, not more than $250 was spent for each outfit. This modest outlay is quite in accordance with the remarkable simplicity with which the girls were brought up. Some newspapers, presumably sympathizing with the disappointed tradesmen, criticize their expenditures as being very mean. They contend that the possession of riches demands proportionate expenditure. Fraulein Berths Krupp is the richest woman in Germany, she being the principal heir under her father's will. She is engaged to marry Gustav von Bohlem Halbach, under secretary of the Prussian legation to the Vatican. Fraulein Barbara Krupp, although not nearly so rich as her sister, is worth $12,500,000. Her fiance is Baron Tolo von Wilowski, son of the Governor of Prussian Saxony. Both bridegrooms-elect are comparatively poor young men.

Young Woman Attacked.

An attack by a strange white man on the daughter of E. A. Mullendore, a farmer residing near Rohrersville, Md., yesterday morning, stirred the residents of the section to a point of fury, and but for the determination of some cooler heads the girl's assailant might have been strung up to the nearest tree. The girl was brutally treated by the man, but she managed to escape from him. Sheriff Charles H. Delbert and States Attorney Albert J. Long went to Trego, where the man, who gave his name as McNeal, was given a hearing before Justice D. A. Hine, who committed him to the house of correction for two years. The child fully identified the prisoner.

McNeal was taken to Hagerstown last night. The attack occurred while the girl was walking along the road from the store at Gapland to her home, and was witnessed by several persons. The man fled at their approach, but he was run down by a posse of angry farmers, aided by Mr. Mullendore, and trussed up like a fowl. McNeal had the appearance of a tramp.

Romance Shattered.

The romance of young Frederick Kiley, who refused an offer of $25,000 proferred by a wealthy broker to give up the hand of attractive Miss Clara Thiele, a stenographer, in New York, has been shattered. Miss Thiele awoke the youthful hero with a start yesterday by saying that he must have been dreaming of being a hero for refusing to sell young women who are not aware they are in chains to him. Miss Thiele said: "If the mysterious Mr. Wilson is willing to give $25,000 for whatever right, title, interest Mr. Kiley may possess in me, Kiley should take it quick. If he cannot get that much, let him take 25 cents, and at that he would have difficulty in giving Mr. Wilson a consideration." Miss Thiele says that Kiley is only a ten-dollar-a-week office boy. Kiley took a day off after his dream. Kiley denied yesterday that he had mentioned Miss Thiele as being the young woman whom the broker wished to marry. He said: "I ssid it might be Miss Thiele, as this broker, Wilson, had stipulated that I was to leave the society of all women, especially a dark-eyed and dark-haired young lady. I immediately came to the conclusion that he meant Miss Thiele."

A Scientific Wonder.

The cures that stand to its credit make Bucklen's Arnica Salve a scientific wonder. It cured E. R. Mulford, lecturer for the Patrons of Husbandry, Waynesboro, Pa., of a distressing case of Piles. It heals the worst Burns, Sores, Boils, Ulcers, Cuts, Wounds, Chilblains and Salt Rheum. Only 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Make a note now to get Ely's Cream Balm if you are troubled with nasal catarrh, hay fever or cold in the head. It is purifying and soothing to the sensitive membranes that line the air-passages. It is made to cure the disease, not to fool the patient by a short, deceptive relief. There is no cocaine nor mercury in it. Do not be talked into taking a substitute for Ely's Cream Balm. All druggists sell it. Price 50c. Mailed by Ely Bros. 56 Warren Street, New York.

Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS

FRIDAY EVENING, SEPT. 14, 1906.

IT WILL be over two years before the next president is elected, but prospective republican candidates are already stumping the country and attempting to manufacture public opinion. They are riding the old standpat hobbies, and appropriating present active conditions as the outcome of their policies of tariff and trust-nurturing, while the democrats are vividly portraying the injustice of both and urging the conservative elements to cast off their yokes. Mr. W. J. Bryan has for several weeks been receiving ovations in different cities of the union, he being hailed as the prospective candidate of the democratic party. Most of what he says is on lines that have for years been regarded as rockribbed truths, which should and are commanding attention. Some of his ideas, however, are not accepted by many democrats, and as time goes on apprehension is manifest lest the outcome result in a division of the party as was the case in 1896 when free silver was the issue. This issue is now virtually dead, and Mr. Bryan has ceased to talk on it. Railroad ownership, however, has, in a measure, taken its place, and notwithstanding prominent men in his party have signified their disapprobation of this impracticable measure, the Nebraskan holds to his opinions though he does not attempt to force his ideas upon others. Mr. Bryan has shown an independent disposition ever since he became a political figure, and many believe this to be his weak point. It is hoped, however, by many of the rank and file of the democratic party that he will soon drop the public ownership matter, and hew to other democratic lines which are now appealing to thousands in both parties.

THE Pennsylvania Railroad and the other railroads forming the Central Passenger Association have applied for and have received permission from the Interstate Commerce Commission to put into effect a 2-cent-a-mile passenger rate on lines west of Pittsburg and Buffalo and east of Chicago. The change in rates is made necessary to comply with the Ohio 2-cent rate law. The railroads in Virginia should do the same thing to comply with the Virginia law on the subject, and not wait till they are compelled to do so through further legislation.

COL. ALBERT CLARKE, of Boston, president of the Home Market Club, is so pleased with President Roosevelt's position against tariff revision that he declares "it is just the position of the Home Market Club." That ought to settle the question of the extreme protectionism of the President, when it is remembered that the Home Market Club is an appendage of the protective tariff league and these two organizations believe the tariff protection to the trusts is a sacred contract that should not be tinkered with.

THE PHILADELPHIA papers of today state that but 88 men of the 1,200 who in 1861 formed the 88th Pennsylvania regiment are now living. The survivors met yesterday to hold their fortieth reunion when officers were elected, etc. This is the regiment which together with the Eighth Illinois Cavalry, in February, 1862, sacked and burned the Gazette office, though up to the present time not one of the members of either regiment has had the manliness to admit the wrong. But war is hell.

SO "ROAST BEEF"—in cans—is really boiled beef, and it may continue to be thus labelled, provided the label explains that the name is a false one and that the stuff was prepared in a pot and not in an oven. It will then be easy, says the New York Tribune, to answer the conundrum, "When is roast beef not roast beef?" When it comes out of a can, stupid! But, then, it is proverbial that veal pie is kittens, and what's the odds, so long as you're hungry?

THE Washington papers continue in their efforts to make a butt of Alexandria city and county. Possibly a libel suit instituted by some of those most interested would teach them a lesson

IT IS believed by many that interested Americans are behind the troubles in Cuba and that soon a jingo movement will be started for the "annexation of Cuba."

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, Sept. 14

"A continuation of the difficulties in Cuba for any length of time will have a serious effect on the sugar crop," says the Bureau of Manufacturers of the Department of Commerce and Labor today in the Daily Consular and Trade Reports. The scarcity of labor, owing to the enlistment of men both for the Government and for those opposing it, has already had a detrimental influence in the sugar plantations, according to the bureau. A number of planters operating on credit have found it impossible longer to continue business even when not afraid that the revolution will destroy the result of their labors, for the reason that the banks refuse accomodations and it is impossible to obtain loans on any terms. Both the Government and the rebels are securing all the draft animals possible, and many of the rebels live off the cattle which they have forcibly taken from planters. The bureau continues to say that the destruction of the sugar and tobacco crops in Cuba as a result of internal dissensions would not interfere seriously with the United States. There is plenty of sugar to be had elsewhere, but the people in the United States may have to pay a little more for these articles.

The State Department today received two dispatches from Charge d' Affaires Sleeper at Havana. One of them says that the western railway bridge at Calabazer and the bridge of the United Railways at Bejucal and Rincon, all in Havana province, were destroyed by the rebels yesterday. There is no traffic running on the Cuban Central, Western, or United Havana railways. The bridge on the Hormiguero Central Company's Constancia plantation and on the Hacuse plantation, near Ceinfuegos, have been burned by the rebels. The Governor of Santa Clara province says that the city of Santa Clara is threatened. The second dispatch from Mr. Sleeper, dated last night, says that it is reported that 300 insurgents attacked the rural guards on the morning of the 12th at Zaza del Medio and that the govern nent lost 18 men while the loss of the insurgents is not known. The Government forces retreated to Sanctus Shiritus. A rumor is current that there is an uprising in Chamaguay. The postal service between Santiago and Havana is interrupted. Mr. Sleeper's report is based on a telegram received from the United States Consul at Santiago on the afternoon of the 13th. Whatever action is to be taken by the United States in connection with the Cuban situation will be dictated from Oyster Bay. Washington is temporarily out of it so far as news concerning Cuba goes. Commander Colwell of the Denver has cabled the Navy Department of his action in landing armed sailors in Havana yesterday. His dispatch which has been forwarded to Oyster Bay read in part as follows: "I have landed a force, after consultation with those best advised as to the situation and especially on the request of President Palma himself, who informed Mr. Sleeper and myself that he gravely doubted the ability of the Cuban government to protect American property and persons."

The statement that Ambassador Chas. S. Francis, the United States representative to the imperial government of Austria-Hungary, has been snubbed by any failure on the part of that government to invite him to attend the unveiling of the statue of Washington at Buda-Pesth is characterized at the State Department as venomous in the extreme. The statue in question has been erected by the subscriptions of native Hungarians and is a representation of their desire for independence as well as being a recognition of the recent erection of a statue to Kossuth at Cleveland, Ohio. Under the circumstances, of course, the imperial government of Austria-Hungary could take no cognizance of the unveiling, nor could it invite the representatives of the foreign powers to be present. Consul-general Chester, being a well known long resident of Buda-Pesth was authorized to attend the unveiling in his private capacity, but not as an official of the United States government.

Because of the fact that an inspection recently made by Pay Director Littlefield of the accounts of Paymaster Tiffany of the battleship Rhode Island showed an alleged shortage of about $2,000 the Navy Department has ordered a thorough investigation.

Nude in Art Saved by Age.

A propos of his latest aesthetic order creating an "art squad," Chief of Police Kohler, of Cleveland, Ohio, had something to offer Wednesday evening on the old masters. A postal card agent brought in a bunch of vari-colored pictures reproduced from the originals. "Them obscene?" asked the agent, slapping the reprint masterpieces down on Kohler's desk. The chief let out his belt and tucked his kerchief in his collar, then Michael Angelo, Titian, Firenze, Raphael and Werner certainly got theirs.

The cards showed Aurora dishabille, with a retinue of Cupids and nymphs wearing less than Aurora herself, and other pictures equally as shocking to the unartistic. "Pretty raw," commented the chief, "but what's a fellow going to do? Here's 18 centuries of public approval behind that. That's where the old masters score on me. Can't pinch 'em for that. Court wouldn't hold 'em."

Leper in Wincester.

A man, well-dressed and afflicted with leprosy, reached Winchester yesterday afternoon on a south bound freight train on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Local police were notified by Train Dispatcher W. Wray Smith, and acting upon orders issued by acting Mayor W. P. McGuire they refused to allow the leper to get off the train. The man would not give his name, but stated that he had boarded the train at Piedmont, W. Va., and was on his way to Richmond, Va. Ugly looking sores were found on his face and one arm was carried in a sling. Railroad men were afraid to go near enough to the leper to put him off the train, and he left Winchester yesterday afternoon traveling in an open freight car and going south. According to the police, the man is not Rachid, the Syrian leper. His identity is a mystery.

White Caps.

As has heretofore been stated in the Gazette, it is said that farmers in this vicinity have organized a band of White Caps for the purpose of apprehending and lynching horsethieves who have been operating in the northern courtries of Virginia on the wholesale scale.

Several of the marauders have been arrested, but none has been punished, and the thieving is still in progress. The White Caps have openly declared their intention of taking the law into their own hands. Horses have been left standing on the road to entice the "rustlers" while the White Caps hid in the woods.

When the White Caps receive word at the crossroad store that a stranger has been seen they inquire the direction he took and start out after him. The White Caps have a leader, who is authorized to make arrests, but under the saddle of one of the riders, it is said, a rope is carried, and if a thief is caught with a horse the rope is intended for use.

COURT OF APPEALS.

The Court of Appeals at Staunton yesterday handed down a long list of decisions but none of the cases were from this section of the State.

The case of Taylor vs. Sipe was argued and submitted, and that of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company vs. Lee was argued in part and continued.

News of the Day.

After three days of strenuous sessions, the democratic State convention of Colorado last night adjourned after naming a ticket with Alva Adams, of Pueblo, for governor.

The Susquehanna plant of the American Agricultural Company, located at Clinton street and Ninth avenue, Lower Canton, Baltimore, was destroyed by fire yesterday morning; loss $30,000.

Chairman Knapp created a sensation yesterday by reading at the Interstate Commerce Commission hearing a letter from a western railroad president, denouncing railroad men who asked that the 30-day rule be suspended in export rates.

The firemen's parade in Baltimore yesterday was the feature of the jubilee, and one of the most complete demonstrations of the kind ever witnessed in this country. Nearly all of the Maryland companies were in line, while Pennsylvania, Delaware, and Washington sent the pick of their fire fighters. A delegation of Alexandrians was also in line.

No word from the steamer Brewster, of the United Fruit Company, which is more than six days overdue, from Port Antonio for Boston, was received yesterday by the officials of the company in that city. The Brewster is commanded by Capt. Frederick Hintz, and has a crew of thirty-three men, almost all of whom are Germans. She carries no passengers.

Intense excitement was caused on Lexington street, near Howard, Baltimore, yesterday afternoon about 4:25 o'clock by the breaking of a temporary footpath in front of 229 west Lexington street, and the subsequent precipation into the cellar beneath the sidewalk of about 50 people, 30 of whom were known to be injured. The accident occurred just after the jubilee parade had passed, and when the street was a jammed mass of humanity.

Death of Mrs. Lee.

Mrs. Elizabeth Blair Lee, widow of Rear Admiral S. P. Lee, died at her home, at Silver Spring, Md., yesterday, in her eighty-ninth year. She is survived by her only son, State Senator Blair Lee, of Montgomery county. Mrs. Lee was the last to survive of the family of Hon. Francis P. Blair, sr., whose close personal and political relationship to President Andrew Jackson and long active participation in public affairs give him an important place in history. Mrs. Lee's mother was a Miss Gist, daughter of Nathaniel Gist, and granddaughter of Christopher Gist, the early Kentucky explorer, who informed Daniel Boone of that country. On her mother's side Mrs. Blair., sr., was a descendant from the Howards of Maryland and Careys of Virginia.

Mrs. Lee was a sister of the late Montgomery Blair, formerly judge in St. Louis, Mo., and afterwards postmaster general in President Lincoln's cabinet. Another brother was James L. Blair, a lieutenant in the United States navy who resigned his position, went to California and placed the first steamboat on the Sacremento river and laid the foundation of a good fortune, but died at the age of 85 years from the result of exposure occasioned by the Wilkes Antarctic expedition. Her youngest brother was the late Francis P. Blair, jr., the free soil leader of Missouri, who was also a member of Congress, general commanding the Seventeenth Corps of Sherman's army, and afterwards democratic nominee for vice president on the Seymour ticket.

Mrs. Lee was born at Frankfort, Ky., June 20, 1818, and went to Washington as a child with her father, Francis P. Blair, sr., editor of Andrew Jackson's political organ, the Globe. She had much of her father's and mother's talent and sympathy, and soon became a great favorite of "Old Hickory"

Carriagemakers Enjoined.

Fifteen wagon and carriage manufactures of Washington took legal steps yesterday to prevent members of Washington Lodge, No. 72, Carriage and Wagon Workers' International Union, from further interfering with them in the carrying on of their respective businesses or from molesting their employes by threats of personal violence or of pecuniary injury. The litigation is in the form of an injunction.

The manufacturers in their petition claim that the scale of wages proposed by the union for ratification was unjust and impracticable in that it required that an inefficient workman should be paid the same compensation as the most skillful laborers. It is stated that the union was notified that the scale would not be accepted, and that after this notice had been served on the union the complainants declared "open shop." The strike committee, it is alleged, after receiving the notice attempted to compel and coerce the complainants into meeting their demands, first by persuading their employes to leave them and next by waylaying and intimidating their workmen. It is also declared that the defendants picketed the places of business of the manufacturers.

Union to Take Action.

Incensed over the suspension of Alvin J. Tanner, a bookbinder at the government printing office, the members of the bookbinders' union are up in arms. A special meeting of the arbitration board of the union has been called for Saturday afternoon when it will be decided what action will be taken.

Tanner was temporarily relieved from duty on August 18 because of an alleged failure to comply with the orders of acting Foreman Ashion. The charge was investigated with the result that yesterday Public Printer Stillings sustained Foreman Ashion by suspending Tanner for thirty days, to date from August 18.

The members of the union are emphatic in their denunciation of Ashion, upon whom they place the brunt of the blame. They consider him an enemy to their organization, and contend that he has misinformed the Public Printer as to the actual state of affairs in the bindery. They say that his charge against Tanner is absolutely unjust, and that he is trying to do everything he can to disrupt any pleasant relations between Mr. Stillings and the employes of the government printing office.

In these days of rush and hurry courtesy is often forgotten. In the mad, pell mell rush of our little life things are done to offend that we rather remained undone. A hastily eaten meal and its resultant headache may cause us social or financial loss. The wise man or woman is the one who relieves little ills of this sort by a little dose of Kodal For D, spepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Virginia News.

The Piedmont Convocation will convene in Leeds Parish, Fauquier county, September 25-28. Convocation preacher Rev. R. W. Micou, D. D.; essayist, Rev. J. F. Coleman; speakers: Rev. J. W. Ware and Rev. J. J. Clopton.

Rev. David Harris, one of the oldest ministers of the Baltimore Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church South, was paralyzed at his home, in Middletown, Frederick county, last Sunday morning. He died yesterday, aged 70 years. He was a native of Berkeley county, West Virginia.

Miss Ida Dulany Beverley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. C. Beverley, of Essex county, will be married to Mr. Harrison Wellford, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Carter Wellford, of "Sabine Hall," Richmond county, Oct. 10, at Oakley," the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. H. Rozier Dulany, in Fauquier county.

A special grand jury in Winchester on Wednesday returned indictments against Charles A. Fisher for conspiracy against his wife to secure a separation from her and against Frank Orndorff, charged with complicity in the conspiracy and with criminal assault upon Mrs. Fisher. Judge Harrison announced that he will summon a special term of court next week at Woodstock to try Orndorff, while Fisher's case is set for November.

William A. Stith, committed suicide at his residence, in Petersburg, yesterday, by shooting himself through the head with a pistol. Mr. Stith was 40 years old, very happily married and leaves a widow and two bright little children. No cause can be assigned for his act beyond the fact of his health. Stith bade his wife good-bye to go to work, but before leaving his home he told his wife that the children wanted her upstairs. After Mrs. Stith had gone upstairs he divested himself of his coat in his sitting-room, laid down on a lounge, placed a pistol to his head and discharged the weapon.

Girls in a Panic.

Hundreds of men and women who were dining late yesterday afternoon in Pabst's big Harlem cafe were driven panic-stricken into One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, New York, when fire from a millinery store next door broke through the walls into the great auditorium-shaped dining room. Forty girls were overcome in the millinery store, and were carried down ladders from the upper stories by firemen.

The fire started from defective insulation in the cellar, and spread so quickly that in a few minutes it was burning the woodwork of the stairways and had cut off that means of escape for the girls employed in the finishing and trimming rooms, on the upper stories of the shop.

The alarms were turned in and the department quickly responded, Captain Lawlor leading a squad of firemen up the ladder to rescue the girls, many of whom were hanging from the windows and screaming for help. A great crowd collected and a number of would-be volunteers started fights with policemen in their endeavor to break through the lines.

The firemen managed to take down all the girls who were at the front of the building, and then started a search through the rear rooms. They found eight girl unconscious from smoke and several more were found later in the hallway of the third floor. The girls were removed to the hospital. The fire damaged property to the extent of $50,000 before it was controlled.

Murder and Attempted Suicide.

Driven to desperation by jealousy, Joseph Paoleucchi, aged thirty-two years, a shoemaker at 1816 Fifth street northwest, Washington, shot and killed Lucy Dodge, seventeen years old, a daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth V. Dodge, of 437 Fifth street northeast, and immediately afterward attempted to end his own life yesterday.

Paoleucchi fired three shots at the girl, two of which took effect. One bullet penetrated the right breast, while another entered the heart, the last missil causing almost instant death. Paoleucchi then turned the weapon upon himself, the bullet penetrating the right thoracic region, between the fourth and fifth ribs. He was removed to the Casualty Hospital, where it was said last night that the wound is serious and may prove fatal.

The tragedy occurred at 4:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon on the sidewalk within a short distance of the Dodge girl's home. The girl's mother witnessed the tragedy, having hurried into the street when she heard the shots, reaching her daughter's side just as she breathed her last.

Sailors Landed at Havana.

One hundred and twenty armed soldiers were landed yesterday at Havana from the cruiser Denver and placed on guard near President Palma's palace. Subsequently the sailors were ordered back to the cruiser, with the exception of a small number to guard the United States legation.

Two field howitzers and two rapid-fire guns were also sent ashore from the Denver.

Several additional warships are to be sent to Cuban waters, including probably the Tacoma and the Cleveland.

Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte and acting Secretary of State Bacon will confer with the President on the situation.

All available Cuban government troops are being concentrated in Havana because of the belief that Guerra's forces are about to make an attack.

A conflict at Santiago de Las Vegas, 13 miles south of Havana, is imminent.

The rebels are seizing American property in Santa Clara province. Strong appeals are being made for intervention.

A dispatch from Berlin says that the announcement has been made that Kaiser William will attend the wedding of Miss Bertha Krupp, which will take place at Essen on October 15.

Letter to P T Harrington

Alexandria, Virginia.

Dear Sir: There's twice as much horse in one horse—it may be a mare—as there is in two or three others together.

So with paints too. If a painter can do your job with ten gallons Devoe for $50; it'll take 12, 15 or 20 of other paints; and the cost of a job is about $5 a gallon, whatever the paint may be.

There are paints adulterated three-quarters—only one quart of paint in a gallon—he's got to paint four gallons of rubbish to get one gallon of paint. The worst horse you've got is as good as that paint, and he'll go as far.

The less-gallons paint is the paint, as the most-horse horse is the horse.

Yours truly,

F W DEVOE & CO.

CONDITIONS IN CUBA.

Havana, Sept. 14.—Developments have come thick and fast today in the Cuban crisis. President Palma has acknowledged his inability to cope with the situation, and turned to the United States for aid. His resignation is expected to be handed to the Cuban Congress this afternoon.

The American sailors have been withdrawn from the streets of Havana but are held in readiness for instant action on board the cruiser Denver in Havana harbor.

Palma is said to be in deadly fear of assassination and will probably seek refuge on board the American vessel before nightfall.

Havana, Sept. 14.—Commander Colwell, of the Denver, has offered asylum to Palma, and he has said that at the first indication of trouble he will go aboard the Denver.

Intervention by the United States is the thing farthest from the wish of the Cuban revolutionists. They hold that the present trouble is strictly an internal one for Cubans to settle among themselves. Next to intervention, the thing the revolutionists least desire is real fighting. The present uprising is designed principally as a demonstration. They have hoped to gain their point on the strength of the demonstration. Failing in that they will fight.

A statement of the Cuban insurgents' cause has just been given out by a courier from General Guzman, whose headquarters in the field are at the Central Andreita plantation near Cruces, Santa Clara province. The statement is in the nature of an appeal to Americans to allow Cuba to settle her own troubles which amount to a restoration of the shackles of the old Spanish rule thinly veiled by the pretense of a republic. General Guzman declares that the constitution has been thrown away, and the royal laws of ancient regimes revived.

With the exception of a small guard left to protect the American legation, all the 155 sailors landed yesterday afternoon from the cruiser Denver have returned on board ship.

While the sailors are gone, however, the feeling aroused by their landing has not subsided. The Denver lies within a stone's throw of the land at the foot of O'Reilly street, and the sailors can be landed again within a few moments if it becomes necessary. A desire not to unduly alarm and excite the people of Havana is understood to have been the reason for the positive instructions from Washington demanding the return of the sailors to their ship.

Havana has been further excited by a report today circulated to the effect that two United States transports bearing 3,000 marines, are on their way to Cuba and will arrive soon.

Just where these transports sailed from is not known, but the report that they are coming is generally believed.

The cruiser Des Moines is also reported to be on its way from Key West, ready to land marines if necessary.

At Cienfuegos the marines landed from the gunboat Marietta, which arrived late yesterday, are still holding their position on land.

Reports received last night and this morning tell of the destruction of plantations. In a few instances property of Americans was destroyed. It is feared the United States may make this the excuse for active intervention if such a course is decided upon.

In ravaging the plantations dynamite was used by the insurgents, and this is regarded as a dangerous development.

Havana, Sept. 14.—It is reported in the street here this afternoon that at a conference at the Palace this morning, with several of his closest friends President Palma expressed his intention of tendering his resignation as soon as the extraordinary session of the Cuban congress convenes. He is declared to have said that he considered his resignation the easiest method of settling the present trouble. No official confirmation of the report was obtainable at the time.

Havana, Sept. 14.—It is reported that President Palma will tender his resignation at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Havana, Sept. 14.—The greatest confusion reigns in government circles here this afternoon. The report that President Palma will tender his resignation to the Cuban Congress at 3 o'clock when it will have convened in extraordinary session, has reached the streets. Business is at a standstill and business streets are lined with excited men. Immediately following his resignation, President Palma will take refuge on the United States cruiser Denver. The cruiser is lying at the foot of O'Reilly street with a launch waiting at the dock. Senor Zevia, assistant secretary of state, resigned this morning. It is impossible to see President Palma, and it is reported that he is in fear of assassination if he appears on the streets.

The captain of the coast defense vessel Cespedes was arrested this afternoon aboard his vessel by order of Government Secretary Montalvo. No reason has been assigned for the arrest.

Havana, Sept. 14.—Denial of the reported intention of President Palma to resign was made this afternoon by Secretary of State and Justice O'Farrell. The denial is believed to have been made for political purposes and is not generally credited.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 14.—President Roosevelt is holding an impromptu cabinet meeting over the Cuban situation at Sagamore Hill today. Secretary Taft, Assistant Secretary of State Bacon and Secretary of Navy Bonaparte are giving him what information they possess and the telegraph wires between Oyster Bay and Washington are being kept hot with reports from subordinates who are keeping the head of the administration in touch with Havana.

Secretary Bonaparte informed the President that the navy was preparing to move the entire Atlantic fleet to Cuban waters if the ships are needed.

London, Sept. 14.—The news of the landing of American marines at Havana confirms the opinion held here that American intervention in Cuba cannot be long delayed. The Standard editorially blames the United States for the present disorder. It says that President McKinley's intervention was carried out in the name of peace and civilization, but the net result is tumult, anarchism, and savagery. Either the Americans must tolerate anarchy in Cuba or exercise an effective protectorate. President Roosevelt would doubtless act promptly and vigorously if he did not have to think of the election campaign. Whatever the final issue, it will be condemned by the democrats, who are standing aside ready to make political capital out of the result. If the Cubans are left in their present condition Bryan, the Standard says, will denounce the apathy of the administration. If they are reduced to order and governed from Washington, he will denounce the tyrannous imperialism, and coin beautiful phrases about the inalienable rights of nationhood and human liberty.

The Morning Post says that Cuba is not strong enough to work out her own salvation.

Monument Unveiled.

Columbus, O., Sept. 14—A statue erected to the memory of President William McKinley by the people of Ohio, was unveiled today in this city where the dead executive had made his home during the four years he served as Governor.

Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, daughter of President Roosevelt, did the unveiling, while Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia, representing the South, and Supreme Court Justice Day for the North delivered the principal addresses. Judge Day reviewed McKinley's life. Senator Daniel paid tribute to McKinley's memory and said: "History has already lifted to a plane higher than these material memorials could ever rise, his name and his crowning works. We believed that its final work will confirm its contemporaneous judgment. We also believe that his fame will grow, as grows all good fame well planted.

"I do not seek to canonize him as a saint, or to exalt him as a demagogue. He was neither. Such ranks do not belong to men. He doubtless had his faults, at least that I assume, and this I think, for he was a man, and there is none perfect, no, not one. He was a christian and a gentleman. He made mistakes and errors as have done the great and the small, the good and the bad, the wise and the foolish, but benignity beamed in his countenance; charity was in his heart and in his hand, and if none threw stones save those who had lesser faults than he, stones would lie still and hands hang down. There was in the sum of his qualities a noble aspect, a genial influence, a friendly attractiveness, and an upward and onward exhortation. And there was also a certain subtle nameless magnetism that drew men to him and made good women honor and love him. He loved his fellowmen. Ah, there was the inclination of his nature. He said all he could to cheer them, he did the best he could to serve them, and this is, to my understanding, what is meant by true glory."

The Thaw Case.

New York, Sept. 14—New counsel in the Thaw case appeared today when John H. Iselin, former assistant district attorney, called at the Tombs and registered as associate counsel for Harry K. Thaw, the murderer of Stanford White. Mr. Iselin was closeted with Thaw for an hour.

Mr. Iselin is a partner of Howard S. Gans, who until the first of this year, was chief of staff in Mr. Jerome's office. This firm represents the district attorney in the petition he presented for the removal of Justice Duel from the bench and likewise represents Mr. Jerome in several civil suits. The new attorney is a member of the well-known Iselin family.

Employment of a firm standing so close to Mr. Jerome in the defense of Harry Thaw has excited considerable comment about the criminal courts building.

Ninety Years Old, Seeks Divorce.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 14—A sensational petition for divorce was filed at Atlantic, Ia., yesterday, by David M. James, of Anita, who seeks separation from his wife, Marie James, on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment, intoxication, threats against his life, desertion and numerous other offenses. James is nearly 90 years old, wealthy and one of the pioneers of Cass county, while his wife, with whom he became acquainted and to whom he paid court through a matrimonial agency, is yet in her teens. James' relatives and friends protested strongly against the marriage.

Mysterious Murder.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept 14—Philadelphia detectives working on the mystery surrounding the murder of Mrs. Maurice Lewis, the Allegheny girl in her boarding house in Philadelphia last Monday, are in Pittsburg, searching for a man believed to be the murderer today. They had long conferences with Superintendent John Glennie and Assistant Superintendent T. C. Johnson of the Allegheny force. The officers arrived today, on the same train which carried the husband of the murdered woman and the body of the victim. Mrs. Lewis' body was taken to Sampson's undertaking establishment, on Sixth avenue, from where the funeral will be held tomorrow.

Attempted Murder and Suicide.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 14.—Charles Geismaer, aged 32, of Macon, Ga., entered the home of Mrs. E. B. Iver, today and drawing a pistol fired a bullet at the woman, wounding her in the hand. Geismar then turned the weapon upon himself and sent four bullets into his body. He died instantly. The man, it is said, had been indulging so freely in liquor recently that his brain had become affected. He is survived by a widow and three children, who reside in Macon.

New York, Sept.—14. Swarming over the city today are two hundred and fifty pretty young women, students, of Radnor College, Nashville, Tenn., who are "seeing New York," as a part of their college curriculum. The trip is an experiment in college education. The girls are traveling on a special train and will visit Cleveland, Cincinnati, Buffalo, Albany, and Wasington.

Fire in a Packing House.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 14.—The big the plant of Cudahy Packing Company, at Cudahy, six miles south of Milwaukee, was partially burned early this morning. Loss estimated at $400,000. The plant carries an insurance of about $600,000. One man was killed and several firemen are said to have been severely injured.

Billy Nolan has deposited a check for $10,000 as a side bet in a challenge in behalf of Nelson for another fight with Gans. Nelson declares that he is willing to fight Gans, the winner to take the whole receipts.

Girl Kidnapped.

Philadelphia, Sept 14—While walking on Mount Carmel avenue, Glenside, with two young men last night, Miss Agnes Mulrooney, 18 years old, a guest at the home of Eugene Cardino, Glenside, was kidnapped by three men and carried off in an automobile. The young woman was accompanied in her walk by Frank Cardino and a man named Frenz. They notified the Cheltenham police. The friends of Miss Mulrooney are at a loss to account for the kidnapping, although it is intimated that the act was inspired by a member of the young woman's family who is actuated by motives of revenge.

Charged with having abducted his pretty sister-in-law in an automobile, Charles Cardino, a wealthy New York merchant, is under arrest here today. The abducted girl is Miss Agnes Mulrooney, eighteen years old, whose sister married Cardino several years ago. They had separated and the police allege that he seized the girl to revenge himself on the wife. Later the girl was found in an apartment at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel. She refused to make any statement. Cardino also had apartments at the same hotel.

Bull in Big Store a Terror.

Pottstown, Pa., Sept. 14—Running away from the rest of the herd, a big bull bounded into the dry goods store of Ellis Mills here yesterday and had everything his own way. The customers and a score of girl clerks vaulted to the top of the counters and tried to look brave, while the beast charged up and down the aisles and made scatteration of things in general. A red petticoat on one of the counters particularly excited his ire, and he made a bee line for it, to the peril of the girls, who barely had time to get out of his way. The owners of the animal then arrived and got him into the street.

Activity at the Norfolk Navy Yard.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 14.—There is great activity at the Norfolk navy yard, and it looks as though the cruisers Newark, Tacoma, and Cleveland, are being put in readiness to rush to Cuba. The Newark is coaling. It is thought that the three cruisers may sail in the next few days for Cuban waters. There will be night and day work until the cruisers are in readiness to sail if necessary.

Witte to Undergo Operation.

Berlin, Sept. 14—Count Sergius Witte, former Premier of Russia and Russia's plenipotentiary to the Portsmouth conference, which arranged the treaty of peace between Russia and Japan, is to undergo a dangerous surgical operation for an internal disease soon. The operation will be performed at Wiesbaden, where Count Witte now is Panic-stricken Sicilians.

Rome, Sept. 14.—Carrying scores of holy images in their ranks and stopping frequently by the roadsides to pray for deliverance from the prevailing earthquakes, long processions of panic stricken Sicilians are marching from their homes toward the sea. The whole country in the region of Palermo has been thrown into a state of great alarm owing to the continuance of the shocks and there has been a general exodus from all the villages toward the coast. The pilgrims are already suffering for want of food and a famine is threatened. Numerous bakers and provision dealers have followed the example of their neighbors and closed their shops to join the marchers. In some of the villages it is almost impossible to obtain food. Relief is being hurried to the island by the government. All that is needed to complete the panic of the people is an eruption from Stromboli, but so far the volcano has remained inactive.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Sept. 14.—The stock market opened irregular, and though fractional gains were shown in the majority of the list, trading was of rather uncertain character. Amalgamated Copper took the lead in point of strength and activity. Reading and Baltimore & Ohio were the most prominent features in the early trading. Reading advanced 2¾ and Baltimore & Ohio moved up 2¾ points. Movements in the rest of the list were mixed.

Daniel O'Day, one of the Standard Oil Co.'s chief men as well as one of the richest men in the United States, died at Royan, in France, yesterday, where he had been treated for stomach trouble for the past year.

Rescue of a Merchant.

A prominent merchant of Shongo, N. Y., J. A. Johnson, says: "Several years ago I contracted a cough which grew worse, until I was hardly able to move around. I coughed constantly and nothing relieved my terrible suffering until I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. Before I had taken half a bottle my cough was much better, and in a short time I was entirely cured. I surely believe it saved my life. It will always be my family remedy for colds." School Board.

A special meeting of the City School Board was held last night, Captain Bryant, the chairman, presiding, who stated that the meeting had been called to elect a teacher.

The Superintendent stated that Miss Kate L. Smith had tendered her resignation as a teacher and that he had expected to have before the board the application of a young man for the position, but that the latter had secured a position elsewhere

The resignation of Miss Smith was then read, accepted with regret.

The application of Miss Jnnie A. Carter for the vacant position was then read and she was elected and her salary was fixed at $35 per month.

The Superintendent moved that the salary of Wm. Fortune, janitor of Hallowell building be increased $2 50 per month to $20, and the motion was carried.

The resignation of B. F. Penn, janitor of Peabody building, was read to take effect October 1, unless an increase in the salary was made to justify him in keeping the position.

The application of J. L. Smith for the position as janitor of Peabody building in case of a vacancy was then read.

In consideration of his long service the salary of Mr. Penn was increased from $40 to $45 per month.

The board then adjourned.

Steamboat Company Sued.

Walter H. Dickhaut, eighteen years of age, said to be a licensed ticket broker at Colonial Beach, yesterday entered suit in Washington against the Washington and Potomac Steamboat Company for $25,000 damages for alleged false imprisonment. Dickhaut being a minor, the suit is filed in the name of his father, Henry Dickhaut, of the Geological Survey. The declaration states that on August 16 last, after purchasing a ticket for Colonial Beach, young Dickhaut boarded the St. Johns, a steamer conducted by the company, and was arrested by the boat's officers and thrown into the hold, where he said he was forcibly detained for nearly two hours, and that employes of the company threw upon him, by means of a hose, large quantities of water. He asserts that after his release from the hold he was allowed the freedom of the boat until Colonial Beach was reached, when he was kept under guard and required to make the return trip to Washington on the boat against his will. He alleges that as a result of the acts of the defendant's employes, he has lost his social standing in Colonial Beach and Washington.

Damages Awarded

Mrs. Mary Hansborough, administratrix of the estate of her husband, George Hansborough, was awarded $9,000 damages by a jury in the Circuit Court of this city last night in her suit against the Southern Railway Company for damages for the death of her husband, who was killed about a year ago by a Southern Railway locomotive. The amount for which suit was entered was $10,000. In the first trial of the case the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff for $5,500, and counsel for the defendant company applied to the Court of Appeals for a writ of error, which was granted. The case was remanded to the Circuit Court for retrial. The plaintiff was represented by Messrs. Norton and Boothe, and the company by Messrs. C. C Carlin and H. O'B. Cooper. A motion for a new trial was made arguments on which will be heard on Saturday next.

A Sailor's Escapade.

Late Wednesday night one of the crew of the U. S. steamer Hornet, of the mosquito fleet, which was anchored off this city at the time, divested himself of all his clothing and swam to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad transfer slip at the foot of Wilkes street After he had landed he told some of the crew of the tugboat Brewerton that he wanted to procure a small boat in which to take some other members of the crew of the Hornet ashore that they might have a good time. No one would loan the man a boat, and he finally lowered himself into the water and swam northward to the foot of Wolfe street, where, it is supposed, he landed. Yesterday morning a yawl boat, belonging to Captain Charles McKenny was discovered to be missing, and it is supposed the sailor carried it away. It was subsequently found adrift.

The White Ribboners.

The 24th annual convention of the W. C. T. U., of Virginia, will meet in Alexandria this month. On Monday evening, September 24th, a consecration service, led by Miss Mary Newton, a national organizer, will be held in the Baptist Church. Tuesday night, September 25th, will be welcome night. On Wednesday evening a grand gold medal contest will be held. Thursday night, Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, of Maine, president of the national W. C. T. U., will deliver an address. There will be two business sessions each day. The public are cordially invited to attend the services of the convention which will be held in the Baptist Church.

Knocked Down by Bicycle.

Mr. Noel Garner, of this city, was the victim of a serious accident this morning while standing near the intersection of King and Fairfax streets. A colored man was riding a wheel on Fairfax street at a rapid gait, and upon reaching King he attempted to turn into that thoroughfare. In doing so he collided with Mr. Garner, knocking him down. The latter fell on his face and sustained a painful and serious injury. Mr. Garner was conducted to his home on south Fairfax street, where he was attended by Dr. Klipstein. The colored man was thrown from his wheel by the impact, but he sustained no material injury.

Officer's Coat Stolen.

A coat belonging to Officer Banner T. Young was stolen from a window of the station house during the rain last night. The officer's badge was attached to the coat which contained a pocketbook in which were papers connected with the Mayor's office.

Funerals.

The funeral of the late Hugh S. Murphy, engineer, who was killed by the overturning of his locomotive in Washington on Sunday night, took place from St. Mary's Church at 9 o'clock this morning. The mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Payne, of Warrenton, and the interment was in St. Mary's Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Harry Brown, G L. Boothe, Richard Gibson, Thomas Fannon, Thomas Bruce and M. J. Macfarland. Large delegations from the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and of the Royal Arcanum, with many other friends of the deceased, attended the funeral.

The funeral of the late Albertus Deeton took place form the residence on north Fairfax street this afternoon, and was attended by relatives and friends. The services were conducted by Rev. C. D. Bulis, pastor of the M. E. Church South, and the pallbearers were Messrs. Thos. Heron, Lambert Lyles, Frank Cook, Samuel H Lunt, E. E. Lyles and Christopher Lyles.

School Permits.

The clerk of the City School Board today finished for the week the issuing of permits to children to attend the public schools and during the day issued 269—120 to colored boys and 149 to colored girls. On the corresponding day last year he issued 283 permits—138 to colored boys and 145 to colored girls. During the week 1,745 permits have been issued—552 to white boys, 588 to white girls, 274 to colored boys and 331 to colored girls During the corresponding week last year 1,810 were issued—569 to white boys, 605 to white girls, 295 to colored boys and 341 to colored girls. All the schools will be opened for study on Monday next and in order that they may be properly organized no more permits will be issued till Monday, the 24th. After that date, and for the remainder of the session, permits will be issued every Monday morning at Peabody building at 9 o'clock.

The Oyster Season.

Oysters are again in season, and the dealers are preparing to meet the demand for the bivalves. Mr. Charles H. Zimmerman, at his hotel in Market alley, has perfected his arrangements for furnishing the bivalves in any style. His fried oysters have always maintained a deserved reputation for their excellence, and they are now being served in the famous Alexandria style, which has never been excelled in or out of the city. He has a fine dining room in the eastern part of his hotel which is growing in popularity all the time with all classes of the community.

No New Developments.

There are no new developments in the investigation of the two recent assaults near Luna Park. "Cap" Turner, colored, who was arrested on suspicion of having been the assailant of Miss Mabel Risley, is still in the county jail, but he has not been identified as the guilty party, and will probably be released in the next few days unless a man who is suspected of having a hand in the assault is apprehended. Reports that the people of Alexandria county contemplate a lynching as a result of the assaults are said to be baseless.

New Lights on Upper King Street

The Washington-Southern Railway Company will during the next few days, begin the work of placing electric lights on King street extended. Agents of the company were here yesterday making the preliminary arrangements. Iron poles are to be used for the lamps, which will be of the improved arc pattern, five of which will be placed in position. When these lights shall have been put in operation arc lights will extend from the new union depot eastward to those operated by the city on upper King street.

"Why She Was Sacrificed."

If you enjoy a really good drama, don't fail to see the big city production of "Why She Was Sacrificed," which comes to the Opera House tomorrow night. To the lovers of plays that are exciting; to those who enjoy the sensational, by all means see "Why She Was Sacrificed." The company is unquestionably one of the best on the road this season and the press has spoken most favorably of the play in the different cities where it has been produced.

The New Engine.

As has been stated in the Gazette, the new fire engine for this city which has been in course of construction at Seneca Falls, N. Y., will leave that place for this city on the 22d instant. An application has been made to the Board of Fire Wardens by the agent of the Gibbs endless chain fire escape for an exemplification of that device in this city. The request will probably be granted and the exhibition will take place after the new engine shall have arrived.

The Protected Home Circle.

The Protected Home Circle held a very enthusiastic meeting last night when five candidates were initiated. Quite a large number of ladies and gentlemen from Congressional Circle, Washington, were present and speeches were made at the conclusion of the business. The members and their invited guests later partook of refreshments which were furnished by L. Shuman & Son.

Cooler Weather.

The sultry and threatening weather of yesterday was followed by rain at the close of the day which continued at intervals throughout the night. The rain was accompanied by some thunder and lightning. The weather today has been fair and cooler.

A tramp this morning applied to Mr. E. E. Padgett for his breakfast, after eating which the man stole a kit of paperhanging tools from Mr. Padgett and made off.

Torture By Savages.

"Speaking of the torture to which some of the savage tribes in the Philippines subject their captives, reminds me of the intense suffering I endured for three months from inflammation of the Kidneys," says W. M. Sherman, of Cushing, Me., "Nothing helped me until I tried Electric Bitters, three bottles of which completely cured me." Cures Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Blood disorders and Malaria; and restores the weak and nervous to robust health. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' druggist. Price 50c.

Money Stolen

Silas Green, a colored boy about 15 years old, assisted a wagon driver today in taking a trunk to the house of Annie Craig, colored, who lives on south Fairfax street. After placing the trunk in the house the boy took a pocketbook containing over $50 from a table and made off. In less than half an hour he was arrested at the new union depot by Special Officer Harding and Mr. Strobel, who chased him for some distance He was detained until the arrival of Officers Bettis and Sherwood. Green at first denied having taken the money, but finally told the Alexandria officers that he had thrown the pocketbook in a yard in West End. The officers went to the yard indicated and found the pocketbook in the grass. Two or three dollars only had been taken from it. Green was brought to this city and locked up. He is from Danville.

While the funeral services of the late Hugh S. Murphy were in progress in St. Mary's Church this morning the music of the organ suddenly ceased. The instrument is operated by water power and the flushing of the fire hydrants at the time deprived the organ of the power which runs it The trouble, therefore, was in no wise due to the organist.

A Curious Case.

Physicians in Passaic, N. J., are puzzled by the case of Mrs. Abram Tack, 76 years old, who for 15 days and nights has been unable to take food or drink. Early in June Mrs Tack was troubled with indigestion and when she recovered refused all diet except bread and milk, insisting that all other foods were poison to her. She lived on bread and milk until two weeks ago, when she became unable to eat even that simple food or even to drink water. She had no symptoms of disease and continued to do her housework until last Sunday, when she became too weak to stand. She cannot retain any medicine given her and the doctors are powerless. The woman suffers no pain, but is gradually wasting away. Her husband, when seen yesterday, said that she did not weigh more than 35 pounds. Her case is exciting considerable interest among medical men.

A Sailor on Sea Pictures.

"I'll take a sailor along with me the next time I buy a marine painting," said a millionaire. "I bought two marines last month, and yesterday my old friend Captain Salthorse had a look at them.

"Salthorse said:

"'In this first picture we've got a trading schooner in charge of a tug towing away from a rock bound coast through a fearful jumble of sea. The schooner's maintop mast is gone, and all sails are lowered except her staysail, which is kept hoisted, though she is towing head on to the gale. Why that hoisted staysail? All hands, I suppose, are drunk.

"'In the second picture,' continued Captain Salthorse, 'the principal boat, an eighteen footer, is racing, yet has no flag flying. That's as incorrect as it would be for you to go to a dinner party minus a shirt. The crew of this boat are getting in the spinnaker, and, if they lower away, both spinnaker and boom will be in the water, for they have neglected to let the boom go forward. But I know what the trouble is with them. They, too, are drunk.'"—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

His Visits to the Earl.

There is a well known English bishop who writes a very bad hand. This bad hand caused a sad error to happen some years ago. A young clergyman had written to the bishop to inquire about a vacant curacy, and the reply that the young man got informed him that the salary was small and the work difficult. But there was one mitigating circumstance. The incumbent, among his other duties, would visit the earl every morning and spend two hours there. The curate would have rejected the post but for the daily visit to the earl. That attracted him. There would, no doubt, he told himself, be many fashionable dinners to which he would naturally be invited. He would make many friends among the rich and powerful. These friends would be able to help him in his career. The earl, perhaps, had daughters. One of them—who knows?—stranger things had happened. And so the curate accepted the difficult and poorly paid curacy to discover on his first visit to the town that he had misread the bishop's letter and that his daily two hours' visit was not to the earl, but to the jail.

DRY GOODS

School Opens September 17th.

That should make you think about preparing your Children's School Outfits. But little more than two weeks to do it in, it would be advisable to begin now. This store caters to the wants of the children with as much care and good taste as it exercises in clothing the "grown ups." Consequently, it enjoys an enviable reputation for selling the best, and at prices often demanded for inferior articles.

We are showing New Fall Dress Goods, Plaids, New Ginghams, New Percales, New French Satines and New Flannelettes.

Ingersoll on Napoleon.

A little while ago I stood by the grave of the great Napoleon—a magnificent tomb of gilt and gold. I saw him take an empire by the force of his genius. I saw him upon the frightful field of Waterloo, when chance and fate combined to wreck the fortunes of the former king, and I saw him at St. Helena with his hands crossed behind him gazing out at the sad and solemn sea. I thought of the orphans and widows he had made, of the tears that had been shed for his glory, and of the only woman who had ever loved him pushed from his heart by the cruel hand of ambition, and I said I would rather have been a French peasant and worn wooden shoes. I would rather have been that poor peasant with my loving wife by my side, knitting as the day died out in the skies, with my children upon my knees and their arms about me. I would rather have been that man and gone down to the tongueless silence of the dreamless dust than to have been that impartial impersonation of force and murder known as Napoleon the Great.—Woman's Home Companion.

Blowing the Nose.

Medical experts are calling the attention of the public to the importance of performing the nose blowing operation in a scientific and hygienic manner. First one nostril and then the other should be blown without undue violence. Doctors state that the two nasal passages should never be closed at the same time. If they are obstructed, as in the case of a cold, the back of the throat is filled with compressed air and this, together with the discharge and the microbes which it contains, may be driven through the eustachian tube into the middle ear and lead to serious results. A great authority on the subject used to forbid his patients to blow their noses when suffering from a cold. The course is hardly one which will commend itself to those in the habit of catching colds. The best advice would seem to be that when it is necessary to blow the nose the blowing should be done gently.—London Mail.

Too Lively.

He was a solemn Scotchman, with an equally solemn and somewhat downtrodden wife. The fact that they were receiving an excellent price for their "second pair front" from an American lodger did not blind them to her failings.

"Dear me, Mr. Macleod," said the lodger, one Sunday afternoon, when an errand took her to the parlor, where the family sat, "I should think you and your wife would be stifled sitting indoors this hot day with the windows shut. If you'd just open one and get some fresh air, I'm sure it would do Mrs. Macleod good; she looks pale."

Mr. Macleod looked at her with his usual stern and unbending gaze.

"We can hae fresh air ony day," he said calmly. "We've no need to hae it rushing aboot the house on the Sawbath."

Germany the Modern Rome.

Let the German people keep a lesson from antiquity before their eyes. Once before an England and a Germany of no less different character have confronted each other. They were Carthage and Rome. And old Rome with its policy of force and power finally conquered the cash politics of Carthage and raised itself to the position of the first power upon earth. We have historical example when we say that the German people must return from the imitation of the un-German Carthaginian-British finance policy and must go back to the Roman-German policy of power and might. In no other way can a really great Weltpolitik be promoted in the hope perhaps of making ourselves ultimately the leading people in the world.—Berlin Grenzboten.

Spanish Sheep.

There are said to be 10,000,000 migratory sheep in Spain, which travel on occasions as much as 200 miles from the plains to the mountains. They are known as transhumantes, and their march, resting places and behavior are governed by special regulations dating from the fourteenth century. At certain times no one may travel the same route as the sheep, which have the right to graze on all open and common land on the way.

Much Exaggerated.

"Tell me," said the inquisitive foreigner, "do American girls affect men's clothes?"

"No," replied the gallant native, "not to any extent."

"Well, well, is that really true?"

"Well, of course, a little rouge may stick to the shoulder of a fellow's coat occasionally, but then it's easily brushed off."—Philadelphia Press.

Chess and Intellect.

It is doubtful whether a great chess player is often, we are sure he is not of necessity, to be regarded as a man of powerful intellect. It has never been shown that the greatest masters of the game were men with big brains for anything but chess.—London Saturday Review.

Her Plea For Delay.

"Will you be my wife, Jane?"

"Will you ask me again, John?"

"Why?"

"Because I'd like to look round a little before I give you the direct answer."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

For Hygienic Reasons.

Mistress—Why have you not swept this morning? Servant—For hygienic reasons, Madame raises the dust sufficiently with the train of her skirt. We must give the microbes a little rest.—Paris Armales.

When men are friends there is no need of justice, but when they are just they still need friendship.—Aristotle.
